NAVY AND ARMY SHORN OF FORCE BY ARMISTICE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 .- The terms of the armistice with Germany were read to congress by President Wilson at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Assembled in the hall of the house, where 19 months ago senators and representatives heard the president ask for the declaration of war, they today heard him speak the words which herald the coming of peace.

The president drove to the capitol at 12:40 o'clock through streets thronged with cheering people. Arrangements had been made for unloosening four large president's entrance in the house.

The strictly military terms of the armistice are embraced in eleven specifications, which include the evacuation of all invaded territories, the withdrawal of the German troops from the left bank of the Rhine and the surrender of all supplies of war.

The terms also provide for the abandonment by Germany of the treaties of Bucharest and Brest-Litovsk.

All allied vessels in German hands are to be surrendered, and Germany is to notify neutrals that they are free to trade at once on the seas with the allied countries.

The naval terms provide for the surrender of 160 submarines, 50 destroyers, six battle cruisers, ten battleships, eight light cruisers and other miscellaneous Sept. 12.

Beside the surrender of 160 submarines, it is required that all others shall have their crews paid off, put out of commission and placed under the superrision of the allied and American naval forces.

Among the financial terms included are restitution for damage done by the German armies; restitution of the cash taken from the National Bank of Belgium and return of gold taken from Russia and Ru-

The military terms include the surrender of 5.000 guns, half field and half light artillery, 30,000 machine guns, 3,000 flame throwers and 2,000 airplanes.

The surrender of 5,000 locomotives, 50,000 wagons, 10,000 motor lorries, the railways of Alsace-Lorraine for use by the allies and stores of coal and iron also are included.

The immediate repatriation of all allied and American prisoners without reciprocal action of the allies also is included.

In connection with the abandoning of the left bank of the Rhine, it is provided that the allies shall hold the crossings of the river at Coblenz, Cologne, Mayence together with bridgeheads and a thirty-kilometer he right bank of the Rhine, and that occupied by the ajes, is to become a neutral zone, and the bank held be the Germans is to be evacuated in 19 days. The ahistice is for thirty days, but the president spoke othe war as "coming to an end."

Geran troops are to retire at once from any territory eld by Russia, Rumania and Turkey before the war. The aed forces are to have access to the evacuated territy, either through Dantzig or by the river Vistula. I unconditional capitulation of all German forces East Africa within one month is provided.

German pops which have not left the invaded territories, who specifically includes Alsace-Lorraine, within 14 daysecome prisoners of war.

The repatrion within 14 days of the thousands of unfortunate vilians deported from France and Belgium also is fuired.

Freedom of less to the Baltic, with power to occupy German it in the Kattegat is another provision. The Germa also must reveal mines, poisoned wells and like age s of destruction, and the allied blockade is to remainchanged during the period of armistice.

All ports on the ck sea occupied by Germans are to be surrendere nd the Russian war vessels recently taken by the rman naval forces also are to be surrendered to tillies.

The president matt plain that the nations plying that it was perfectly satisfac-which have overthrown the military masters of Germany will now attempt to guide the German people safely into the family of nations of democracy.

These are the "high spots" of the terms, as the president read them to congress. Germany's acceptance of them, he said, signalized the end of the war, because it made her powerless to renew it.

PRESIDENT'S ORDER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—By order of President Wilson, Provost-Marshal General Crowder today diflags from the capitol dome at 1 o'clock upon the rected the cancellation of all outstanding draft calls, stopping the movement during the next five days of 252,000 men and setting aside all November calls for over 300,000 men.

A small number of men in Eastern states commenced entraining at 6 a.m. today for cantonments under the calls, and the cancellation comes too late to alter their status. They will be considered as in the army until demobilized.

Men not yet entrained, whether specially inducted or assembled by general call, for whom the day and hour of service has been set by draft boards, will be considered as honorably discharged, and so paid.

Calls for the navy and marine corps are not affected by the cancellation, and entrainments of men for these services will continue as ordered. Draft boards will continue classification of registrants of Secretary Baker later announced that so far as practical all men who have been called and who have not yet completed their training will be immediately turned back to civilian life.

Mr. Baker made this statement after a conference which included the heads of practically every important bureau of the war department. He said that more comprehensive announcements concerning the Out in Two Minutes. situation would be made later.
